ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL’S REPORT
WHAT A BOOK WEEK!
Last week there were many exciting things planned to celebrate Book Week. All students enjoyed the Book Week Incursion with Felice Arena, author of Specky Magee, Sporty Kids and Andy Roid series. Ms Nestor invited a number of teachers to participate in lunchtime Library reading. A big thank you to Lainie Nestor, Sara Wyse, Ashleigh Browne, Tallulah Griffin and Joanne Twomey for their fantastic stories!

BOOK PARADE DRESS UP PARADE
To complete our wonderful Book Week, Ms Nestor, Literacy Coordinator, organised a Book Character Parade. Students were very creative in their costume designs, as were some of our teachers! Look at the photos on the following pages and Ms Nestor’s report.

FATHER’S DAY/SPECIAL PERSON’S DAY ACTIVITIES
I would like to say a special “Thank you” to Nicky Postan and her strong team of helpers who worked so hard to provide the wonderful breakfast that is one of our most highly attended events at CSPS. The looks on the faces of the children and the chatter in the hall spoke volumes for the value of this event for our community.

The Parents’ Association committee also provided a great Father’s /Special Person’s Day Stall for our children to purchase gifts. This was so well organised and run that there were no items left after all children had the opportunity to purchase items, with even a second chance for additional items. Congratulations to Louise Bloom who coordinated this so beautifully and to all the parents who helped it to run so smoothly and efficiently.
Thank you to everyone who helped our children celebrate and we hope their dad/special person had a terrific Father's Day!

YEAR 4 CAMP

Our Year 4 students, their teachers and many teachers from other year levels have just completed 3 glorious days at Manyung YMCA Camp, Mt Eliza. Some of the activities offered at this camp are high ropes, cooking, giant swing, orienteering, bike riding and the initiative courses. Students who participate in these outdoor education camps have opportunities to practise the PYP attitudes of Respect, Co-operation, Tolerance, Enthusiasm, Confidence, Empathy and Independence. Camps are also rich in learning social skills. Students adopt a variety of group roles, make decisions for the whole group, resolve conflict to achieve group goals and learn directly from taking responsibility. Thank you to the teachers who attended and the feedback we received about the students’ full involvement.

YEAR 6 EXHIBITION

Yesterday, both staff and parents of our Year 6 students were invited to attend the Year 6 Exhibition. The inquiry grew out of the transdisciplinary theme, ‘How the World Works’. The central idea being explored was ‘Scientific advances impact on society and the environment’. Our students presented their knowledge and understandings to their fellow students throughout the school, teachers from other PYP and local schools, our own teachers, parents and the wider community during a demanding week that involved an evening session and day time visits from many year levels. We were extremely impressed by the depth of the students’ inquiries; the knowledge gained, the actions that resulted and the wisdom of thought which children were able to articulate; it was quite remarkable. Below is a listing of the exhibition topics our students inquired into. These demonstrate a strong testament to their growing awareness of the world around them and the active role that they will play in that world.

- Crossbreeding
- Cloning
- Alzheimer’s Disease
- Brain Trauma
- Animal Hybrids
- Vasovagal Syncope
- Placebo Effect
- Decomposition
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Bipolar
- Transgender
- Drugs- Prescription, illegal, antibiotics
- Painkillers
- Climate Change
- Seed Vault
- Cars and the Environment
- Pacific Garbage Patch

Congratulations to the students and their staff mentors who assisted them in producing such thoughtful inquiries.

EXTRA SAUSAGE SIZZLE- WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 14TH

Next Wednesday we will be holding an extra Sausage Sizzle at lunchtime. What a lovely way to end the school term! Thank you in advance, Steve Feder, for setting the extra date aside, along with all the volunteers who make this such a smooth event, feeding 400+ children! Don’t forget your $2.50 per sausage.

REMEMBER ABOUT MOBILE PHONES

As we are starting to see younger students bringing mobile phones to school, the school would like to remind parents and students that:

- Crossbreeding
- Cloning
- Alzheimer’s Disease
- Brain Trauma
- Animal Hybrids
- Vasovagal Syncope
- Placebo Effect
- Decomposition
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Bipolar
- Transgender
- Drugs- Prescription, illegal, antibiotics
- Painkillers
- Climate Change
- Seed Vault
- Cars and the Environment

REMEMBER ABOUT MOBILE PHONES

As we are starting to see younger students bringing mobile phones to school, the school would like to remind parents and students that:

- Personal property is often brought to school by students, staff and visitors. This can include mobile phones, electronic games, calculators, toys, bicycles, musical instruments, sporting equipment, and cars parked on school premises

- the department of education and training does not hold insurance for personal property brought to schools and it has no capacity to pay for any loss or damage to such property

- private property brought to school by students is therefore not insured by the school or covered by school insurance, and it is not the responsibility of the school or the department of education and training if that property is lost, stolen or damaged

IMPORTANT- PLANNING FOR 2016

If you know of any families that have not yet enrolled students for the 2017 school year or yet to advise us of students in Years Prep to 5 who will be leaving our school at the end of this year, we would be very grateful if you could ask them to contact the school as soon as possible, as the task of planning the staffing and structures for 2017 is now well underway.

TIPS AND TRICKS FROM THE ELEARNING TEAM

How do I know if I can trust you? ... information on the Internet that is!

With just about every single snippet of information ever created at the tip of our fingers, finding reliable sources of information on the World Wide Web can be confusing for adults and children alike. So, here is one simple question you can ask to help your child navigate their way to information they can trust.

What is the website’s domain?

Thinking about the origin of the site can give clues to its mission or purpose. This can help us decide if it’s reliable.

.org – usually reserved for advocacy websites such as not for profit organisations. These sites are generally fact checked and credible.

.edu – A site affiliated with an education institution. These sites generally post information based on credible research.

.gov – a government site. Information on these sites is generally well researched and credible.

.com - usually a business or commercial site. You need to think about the purpose of the site and who has written it to decide if it’s a reliable source.

.net - often a personal site through an internet provider. As with .com sites, you need to think about the site’s purpose and author before deciding if it’s a trustworthy source.

While this question alone is not a fail-safe way to ensure you’re not duped by a dud fact or an unreliable opinion – it sure makes a good start.
WHAT A FANTASTIC BOOK WEEK WE HAD AT CSPS!

Thanks to author, Felice Arena, for talking to us about the writing process, his love of books and helping us act out parts of his Specky Magee series.

Thanks to students and their parents, for their fantastic costumes at our book character parade and congratulations to Jasper G, Cooper R, Poppy M, Maia W-B, Caper F-L and Aliya G for being their year level winners for most creative costumes! I hope you enjoy your books!

Finally a big thanks to Mrs Schnall and Ms Pappas for the great work happening in the art room with the CBCA shortlisted books and to Ms Wyse, Miss Browne, Miss Booth, Mrs Twomey and Miss Griffin for sharing stories in the library with children at lunchtime.

CHROMEBOOK NEWS!
Wow! What a week it was in Year 4, last week!
The 1:1 Chromebooks arrived in Year 4 classrooms and were quickly being used as an invaluable tool for students. We have already seen some fantastic collaborative learning on the devices and we are very much looking forward to exploring the possibilities further.

Dear Parents,

The World Teacher’s Day Lunch is a great event which the staff enjoy immensely. To ensure the luncheon runs smoothly, we rely on parents to help set up, help during the lunch, and clean up afterwards.

We are seeking several helpers as follows:
