PRINCIPAL'S REPORT – GAYLE YARDLEY

School Review 2016

We have now had the second of our school review days which followed our school self-evaluation. This process was managed by an external reviewer, Victoria Triggs who is from an independent company. For these two days our own staff was also joined by our Senior Education Improvement Leader, Stuart Andrews who is based at the South East Victoria Regional Office, the Principal from Yarra Rd PS in Croydon, Kate Perkins, the Assistant Principal of St Kilda PS, Jo O'Malley and two parent representatives from our own School Council, Olivia Sack and Rosy Renwick. I am very grateful for the time given to our school by these people who have helped to ensure our future focus areas for improvement are well informed. I am particularly grateful to Olivia and Rosy for their volunteer time. It is our aim to move ahead with teaching and learning at CSPS in a way that will have the greatest impact on our students' learning and importantly, help shape them into citizens who will make a positive difference in the world today and in the future. What was obvious to me over the two days of input from CSPS teachers, students and parents was that, at our school there is a consistent, collective desire to work towards this aim and to improve the way we go about the teaching and learning to achieve this. We now look forward to receiving the reviewer's report, after which we will then work on developing the new four-year Strategic Plan.

End of Year Processes

It's that time of year when we are busy finalising the 2016 school year, while at the same time preparing for the coming year. I'd like to thank everyone for the extra effort, time and patience that is required to ensure this all runs smoothly and effectively. Thanks go to our teachers who are spending much personal time ensuring comprehensive reports are written for parents. We have also received parent input regarding considerations to be taken into account as we plan classes for next year, so I thank those who took the time to follow the process outlined in the newsletter earlier this term. Teachers work together in their teams, taking children and parent input into consideration, along with their comprehensive knowledge of students and the academic, social, emotional and behavioural needs of the cohort, in an endeavour to ensure children are well placed for optimal learning, while taking into account all the constraints and complexities involved. Gill Bartholomeusz and I also contribute our knowledge from another perspective which sometimes includes confidential information that may need to be considered. So it can be seen that much goes into this future planning and it is therefore, not possible to accept late requests for input because of the complexities and time required for this process.

Children come first at Caulfield South

Minister James Merlino's Visits CSPS / Remembrance Day

There was much excitement when I was advised that the Education Minister was to visit our school! The purpose was specifically to watch our Drum Corps practise their Remembrance Day routine. This is a rare honour for a school and our school was very proud to host this visit. It presented another leadership opportunity for Year 6 students, Lily W, our Gaze House Captain and Elizabeth K, our Warren House Captain who welcomed the Minister, introducing him to the other official dignitaries, Stuart Andrews, Senior Education Improvement Leader, Jason Perlstein, our School Council President and Bob Larkin, the Caulfield RSL President.

I saw some great photos that showed how impressive our Drum Corps was and I also had a glowing report from Stuart Andrews who has now been very impressed by the CSPS community on a number of occasions! Congratulations and thank you to Sandy Hood who once again organised his schedule to accommodate the needs of our school. This was a great opportunity for a final practice before Remembrance Day where our drummers were, by all accounts, 'front and centre' in the service at the Shrine of Remembrance. They performed in front of Linda Dessau, the Governor of Victoria and the many members of the public who attended the Victorian State Remembrance Day Ceremony at the Shrine. It was an honour for the Drum Corps members to participate in this significant ceremony and it has been reported in an article on the Department website which can be accessed through the following link: <http://www.education.vic.gov.au/about/news/archive/Pages/Caulfield-South-drummers-march-on-for-Remembrance-Day.aspx>

Netasha Maletsky, Year 4 students -Reagan P, Jacob P, Baille M-C, Bella K, Lucas N, Javon P and Year 3 students -Tommy P, Rhys K, Lewis S, Reuben G, Wendy X, Abby T, Levi W, Zara W, Mik M. Thank you also to siblings who supported -Rosie P, Caleb P and Reed M-C. Your time given so generously to our school is much appreciated! I hear the sausage sizzle was once again very popular, thank you this time, to Robert C.

(Thank you for the photos Sarah T!)

Working Bee Years 3 & 4

I'd like to thank the Year 3&4 families who were responsible for the great work done on Sunday morning 6th November that resulted in our school looking 'ship-shape' for the Minister's visit on the Monday morning. The front garden looks fabulous and they also did some other grounds maintenance around the school for us all. The working bees have been most successful this year with the change in format that was suggested by some of our parents to enable year level families to get together while helping to maintain the school. Thank you to: Parents -Kerry Perlstein, Elaine Targett & Steve Parolin, Michelle & Jose Pinto, Robert Churchus, Dubi Landau, Miriam & Michael Wynne, Lubana & Peter Squire, Naomi & Reuben Gruskin, Jenny Xia, Viktoria & Craig Nenke, Sarah Tinkler, Rebecca Pohlner,

Transition at CSPS

We now have 81 Prep students enrolled for 2017 which means we will have four Prep grades next year instead of three. The new students and their families have been welcomed to CSPS by way of our transition program, during which the teachers provide the children with activities to introduce them to our school while the parents are given information to assist with a smooth transition. We've had terrific attendance for the first two sessions and I'd like to thank our Prep coordinator, Lainie Nestor for the work she has put into ensuring such a comprehensive transition program for these new CSPS children. Thank you also to the teachers and other students who have supported the program, particularly our Year 6 students who have, in their leadership capacity, welcomed the new families upon arrival and the Year 5 children who are 'buddies' to the new Preps. The third session will be tomorrow at 2.15pm.

There is also a transition program happening at the other end of the school as our Year 6 students prepare for secondary school. One of the transition supports provided for these students is the opportunity to participate in the 'Moving Up' program by Glen Eira Youth Services, to assist them to feel confident and happy moving onto the next stage in their education and life. I encourage you to read a report about this program by Jordy in Year 6 which is further on in this newsletter.

Resource Smart Awards at IMAX Melbourne Museum

I congratulate our energetic Green Machine led by Stacey Fallon and Kate Tarrant that is responsible for our school's sustainability improvement journey over the last few years. Last Friday, CSPA was represented by Isaac R (4A), Milly P (4B) and Sophie D (4A) who went to IMAX Melbourne Museum with Miss Fallon and Miss Tarrant as one of the four finalist schools for the Waste - School of the Year Award. The winner of this award was St Kilda PS which we congratulate. However, we are very proud of being one of the finalists and our quest to continue to develop as a Resource Smart School continues. Congratulations to Green Machine and the school community for getting behind this quest! Please read the full report in this newsletter, written by the students.

Year 3 Camp

Year 3 students and teachers are off to camp today along with a few extra friends (additional supervising teachers!) to enjoy the natural environment of Mt Evelyn. This is a wonderful camp to begin the camping program that helps to build teamwork, develop and extend friendships in a different environment and to develop student resilience and independence. We wish them a very happy and successful camp! One of the great benefits of Tiqbiz is that parents can receive a camp update if they have the App on their smart phones. Parents will also be advised through Tiqbiz of the expected return time on Friday afternoon which will save time for our office ladies who used to receive so many phone calls requesting this information.

Trivia Night – Our Major 2016 Fundraiser

Gill thanked all our wonderful Trivia Night organisers and helpers in the last School News but I would like to add my thanks to those dedicated workers for our school and congratulate them on the fabulous total raised of $20,192 that will go towards the new Nature Play and Learning Space. Thank you also to everyone who supported the event with their participation and fun created on the night!

Twilight Market at CSPS

Thanks to Netasha Maletsky and her generosity in organising this event, we will have the opportunity for our community to experience all that a December twilight market offers, but Natasha needs more helpers! Please see online booking notice in this newsletter. A little bit of help from many goes a long way. I encourage you to consider helping.

Thank You to CSPS Community

I'd like to send a personal word of thanks to our CSPS community for all the positive thoughts and actions, love and messages of good luck that have been sent my family's way after the recent cancer diagnosis that my husband, Mark received. This is a journey on which our school has accompanied a number of families and staff over the years and I now realise the importance of the actions of community at such a time, from a different 'first-hand' perspective. Term 4 has been a blur of hospitals, doctors' appointments, support in so many forms from family, friends and community and for me, working in between on the important and precious work of leading our school in the final term of our review year. This experience has made me realise the true significance of collective responsibility and commitment in an educational environment and I'd like to thank everyone for their part in ensuring our school continues to operate at a high level. This has given me a sense of great pride in our CSPS community and I am most grateful to everyone for their part in all that has and is being achieved at our school. I must thank Gill Bartholomeusz individually, however, for her ever-present support and continued leadership role in our school. We should all now look forward to the many wonderful events and celebrations that are ahead in the final weeks of our school year. I encourage you all to enjoy each of the special moments and be mindful of the importance of such times.

Warm regards to all,

Gayle

TRISTAN BANCKS GOOGLE HANGOUT

Some of you might remember last year we had Tristan come and tell us all about his writing career and books. Last term the year 6's studied one of his books called 'Two Wolves'. Along the way we all had lots of questions for Tristan about the book. Last Thursday Ms Fensham managed to have us chat with him through Google Hangouts. Tristan was very open to our questions and answered them very well. We were also fortunate enough to hear a bit about his writing career and some of the books he is working on at the moment. Tristan told us about some of the techniques he uses to write and what inspires him, as well as how he developed his strong author's voice. Reading Tristan's book has really improved our writing and it was great to be able to extend our learning outside the classroom.

CSPS YEAR 6 STUDENTS TRANSITION TO SECONDARY SCHOOL

The 'moving up' transition program.

Over the course of three weeks the year sixes have been participating in a program by Glen Eira Youth Services to assist them in their transition from primary to secondary school. The program targets common issues such as friendship and bullying and helps give them strategies to overcome those issues. In one of the sessions the year sixes broke down what they consider a good friend. We then used the most common results to see what the majority of us consider a good friend. The program provides a confidential system to ask questions we would feel uncomfortable to say publicly. It will then be answered anonymously by one of the youth workers. The program also targets the issue of bullying and the many forms it could be practised. The class then writes a list of all the people who can help them and why. Overall this program has had a significantly positive effect on team six and has made entering high school a smoother transition.

Resource Smart Awards Ceremony

On the 11th of November three Green Machine members Isaac.R (4A), Milly.P (4B) and Sophie.D (4A) went to the Melbourne Museum with Miss Fallon and Miss Tarrant. Miss Fallon and Miss Tarrant met us at Glenhuntingly station to catch the train to Parliament Station. Before we went in to the museum we went through some beautiful gardens.

When we got to the museum Miss Fallon was so happy because there was free eco dishwashing tablets from 'Earth' so Isaac, Milly and Sophie went and got some for Miss Fallon and Miss Tarrant. Soon it was time to go in to Imax for the presentation. Natalie (from Totally Wild) and Josh (from ABC Me) were the hosts and started us off with an engaging speech. There were other speakers too including: Stan Krpan (Chief Executive Officer from Sustainability Victoria) and Lily D'Ambrosio (Minister of Energy, Environment and Climate Change).

We got to have a little break and thoroughly enjoyed all the mini muffins, scrolls and fruit to finish it off. Then we went in to the museum to do two activities. The first activity was to hold a Katydid (an insect) the second activity was we learnt all about other insects. Then we went back to Imax for the award ceremony.

There were so many people in Imax. There were awards for waste, energy, biodiversity and water school of the year and each category included primary and secondary schools. There were also awards like teacher of the year, ResourceSmart school of the year and student-led action team of the year.

Over a hundred people applied for waste school of the year and only four were chosen as finalists - including us! Unfortunately, we did not win but we were very proud of St Kilda Primary School for winning the title. We were a bit sad about not winning but filled with glee to be nominated as a finalist. We have started our applications for next year and crossing our fingers for victory.

Thank you to the whole community for your support and kind words!
From, Issac, Milly and Sophie.

HEALESVILLE SANCTUARY

Last Wednesday all the Year Ones visited Healesville Sanctuary. One of the first animals we saw was an Echidna, they looked cuddly, but a bit spikey! While we were there we also saw dingoes, a koala, snakes, pelicans, emus and a baby crocodile. The sanctuary has a great collection of all sorts of birds, some I've never seen before, like the Cassowary! We fed some parrots and Leo got to hold a stick with some apple on the end so the birds could fly down and grab it. The best bit was after lunch when we sat down to watch the bird show. We saw birds of prey swoop down over our heads, owls and a huge Wedge Tailed Eagle, we even got to hear a talking Cockatoo. Everyone had a great time and learned lots about the habitats of our native animals.
